

For the 6th – 12th grade assignment for a nonfiction book without a plot, submit notebook entries. You can do notebook entries by writing in response to these questions:

What is really important about this story?

What does this text say about the world?

What does this text say about life?

What is the point of this text for me?

What is the story underneath the story?

What does the author want me to think about when I am reading this story?

Does it matter if people read this story? Why should or shouldn't they?

How does this story relate to the gospel of Jesus?

For the 6th – 12th grade assignment for scripture readings, students should read the selection listed and create a 5 minute devotion/activity to share with the class the first week of school.
